- The VASEP said that in the first half of September 2021, seafood exports continued to be heavily affected by production interruptions, so it decreased deeply by 31% over the same period last year. The easing of the gap since mid-September has boosted the production recovery somewhat, reflected in the export results in the second half of the month. Accordingly, seafood export turnover in September 2021 reached over USD 628 million, down 23% over the same period last year.
